The CFP- Certification is attracting the attention of a wide cross section of the student and professional community in India. There have been expressions of interest from professionals as diverse as Chartered Accountants, Masters of Business Administration, Engineers etc. as well as from persons employed with some of the biggest financial service organizations in the country. However, such expressions of interest have not always translated into registrations for the course due to the apprehension that their hectic schedules will not permit them to devote adequate time for academics.

FPSB India recognizes that these professionals already possess certain skill sets and proficiency which is expected of Financial Planners. Hence, in order to enable eligible professionals (both in terms of education as well as experience) to acquire the CFP- Certification in a more time efficient manner, FPSB India has introduced a fast track Certification Program in line with global certification practices which has been christened as "Challenge Status Program".

Experience Criteria

A candidate is required to provide a valid proof of one's adequate experience (3 years or 5 years, as described below) prior to applying for Advanced Financial Planning exam (Exam 5) under Challenge Status Pathway along with proof of having completed a higher qualification than a Graduate, viz. a Post Graduate qualification in select specified streams or a specified professional qualification. In respect of the pre-requirement of adequate experience in the CSP, a candidate may be categorized as working in a Financial Institution or Corporate entity engaged in financial services. Here also the candidate should be engaged in core financial services identified by the abilities under any one of the six components of Financial Planning, viz. Financial Management, Asset Management, Risk Management or Insurance Planning, Tax Planning, Retirement Planning and Estate Planning. Three years' prior experience is considered as adequate for eligibility under CSP for such candidates. A candidate working in a Financial Institution or Corporate entity engaged in financial services may, however, be engaged in 'other financial services'¹ not specifically identifiable by the abilities under any one of the six components of Financial Planning. Similarly, a candidate may be working for a Corporate entity not engaged in financial services (viz. it can be a company engaged in manufacturing, services, etc.), but he/she may be posted in the finance department of the company dealing with one or more of 'other financial services'¹. Such candidate shall be required to have five years' prior experience to be considered as adequate for eligibility under CSP.

Experience criteria for candidates applying through CSP are illustrated in the following table:

Category	Nature of Corporate	Experience Sector	Years of Experience	Requirement of having completed the Experience criterion for CSP
Corporate	Financial Services	One of the six Financial Planning components	3 Years	Prior Experience before applying for CSP
		Other Financial Services	5 Years	Prior Experience before applying for CSP
	Non-Financial Services	Other Financial Services	5 Years	Prior Experience before applying for CSP
Self Employed	--	Financial Planning Services, or one or more Financial Planning components	3 Years	Prior Experience before applying for CSP

Verification of Work Experience

All work experience related documents should be supported by evidence and certificates duly attested by a Gazetted Officer or Notary Public appointed by a State Government or Central Government. The candidates employed with banks, financial institutions and Charter Member organizations of FPSB India can get the documents attested by their Head - HRD. If, at any time prior to or after conferring the certification, it is found that the work experience certificates are not authentic and information provided is false, the Board reserves the right to reject the respective application or cancel the certification and forfeit the certification fees, such forfeiture of fees not being limitation of any other action foreseen by the Board. The Board reserves the right of determining acceptable work experience and may call candidates (at their own expense) for an interview. The decision made thereafter by the Board is final.

The following is an indicative list of evidence to be provided by a candidate forwarding his/her portfolio under unsupervised work experience:

- Sufficient number (at least ten) of real Financial Plans made for clients which cover four or more Financial Planning Components. (Considered as 'Strong' evidence)
- Statements of customized Retirement solution; financial projection to fund retirement expenses and strategies to meet shortfall; Net Worth – current as well as at different points such as retirement and bequeathing; Cash flow management; Risk covers – life and assets, optimum risk covers and gap analysis; Risk profiling of client; Ascertaining client's risk appetite and risk tolerance; Exposure to financial risk; Optimum asset allocation and investment strategies planned for various goals; Analysis of investment portfolio and rebalancing strategies; determination of return band-width, required rate of return to meet a certain goal and choice of appropriate investment instruments; Determining Client's current, deferred and future tax liabilities; taxability of assets and liabilities at different strategic points; evaluation of existing tax strategies and their financial impact; various cost-benefit analyses of a client's tax management options in overall tax planning strategy; assessment of liquidity of estate at death; relative advantages and disadvantages of each estate planning strategy for a client; detailed implementable estate planning strategies with analysis of specific needs of beneficiaries, etc. (Considered as 'Strong' evidence when they collectively cover all six Financial Planning Components of at least ten clients in the subject experience period)
